

A romantic scene from Disney's 'Beauty and the Beast' featuring the Beast and Belle. The Beast, a large, brown-furred creature with a crown-like mane, is shown in profile, wearing a dark blue, ornate coat with gold embroidery. He is holding Belle, who is wearing her iconic yellow ball gown. They are standing in a grand, opulent ballroom with large, arched windows in the background, through which warm, golden light is streaming. In the lower-left foreground, a glass bell jar sits on a surface, containing a single red rose. The overall atmosphere is magical and romantic, with soft lighting and a warm color palette.

Beauty and The Beast

Part 1: Childhood

- She loves reading books and isn't like any other girls
- She was raised by a single father

The Main Characters:

- Belle
- The Beast
- Gaston

The Call To Adventure:

- Belle's dad gets lost and ends up at the palace of the beast

Threshold:

- Goes out to find her dad

A scene from Disney's Beauty and the Beast. On the left, Mr. Darcy is behind prison bars, looking distressed with his hands pressed against the metal. On the right, Belle is looking at him with a worried expression. The background is a dark, stone-walled cell.

Part 2: Initiation

- She was forced to live with the beast to let her dad go

Supernatural Helpers:

- Mrs. Potts, Cogsworth, Lumiere, and Featherduster make Belle feel welcomed and taught her the rules

The special weapon :

- Uses a mirror to see anything

The abyss:

- Gaston and his crew march in the castle
- Gaston and the beast fight
- The beast gets hurt

The Transformation:

- Belle kisses the beast and transforms him back to a human and heals him

The Return Home:

- The beast and Belle get married and live together forever

